

Caracas - culture, Cacao and culinary discoveries

Bocado "Cacao"

Let yourself be enchanted by the cultural and culinary diversity of Caracas
A journey that combines history, enjoyment and encounters.

1. Historic centre of Caracas & Simón Bolívar
2. Cacao plantation & chocolate factory in Barlovento
3. Authentic insights into Barrio Petare
4. Culinary delights such as golfiaos
5. Modern and traditional sides of Caracas

From Bolívar to chocolate - a journey through the heart of Venezuela

Map with location

Included services

Tours: see description;

Meals: 3x breakfast, 3x lunch, 3x dinner;

Transport during the city tours and entrance fees, bus journey Caracas - Barlovento – Caracas;

2 Nights in a nice City-Hotel;

English-speaking tour guide throughout.

Services not included

Additional meals and drinks during the bar visits.

Package offers Bocado „Cacao“

Duration	Price per person
3 days / 2 nights	490,- Euro
Discount for groups	on request
Availability	Weekends only

Bookable from one person. This price is per person for a group of four or more people.

Caracas in three days: culture, Cacao and culinary discoveries

Experience the vibrant capital of Venezuela, Caracas, on a journey that combines culture, history and culinary delights. This tour takes you through the many facets of the city - from historical treasures to culinary highlights and authentic encounters with the local culture.

Day 1: In the footsteps of Simón Bolívar

Start with a city tour of Caracas. We recognize the main highlights related to Simón Bolívar's life, a "caraqueño" with universal transcendence. Feel the spirit of independence in the Panteón Nacional, the national hall of fame. A stroll through the historic centre reveals colonial architecture and the hustle and bustle of the city.

Day 2: Cacao tour to Barlovento

A special highlight awaits you on the second day: a Cacao tour to Barlovento. Visit a traditional Cacao plantation and learn all about the cultivation and processing of the "brown gold". In a chocolate factory, you will experience how the finest chocolate is made from Cacao beans - a treat for all the senses. In the evening, return to Caracas and visit a typical bar where you can round off the day with local specialities.

Day 3: Cultural diversity in Caracas

The third day is all about cultural diversity. Explore the Barrio Petare, one of the largest and liveliest neighbourhoods in Caracas. Sample golfiaos, a local sweet, and get to know the daily life of the locals. A trip on the metro will take you to Chacao, a modern and lively neighbourhood where you can enjoy the urban flair on a walk.

Discover Caracas: culture, Cacao and culinary adventures

Entry and health

For citizens of the European Union, only a passport valid for at least six months is required to enter Venezuela. Vaccinations are not mandatory and malaria prophylaxis is not required for most journeys. Up-to-date information on travelling to Venezuela can be found on the website of the Venezuelan embassy in Berlin at: <https://alemania.embajada.gob.ve/>

Physical requirements

No special physical requirements.

Accommodation facilities

Accommodation is not included in the tour price. We are happy to help you arrange and book accommodation in Caracas.

Food and drink

We discover the culinary diversity of Venezuela and learn about various typical dishes.

Note: Please inform us of any allergies or intolerances in good time before the start of your holiday.

Transport

Within Caracas, we move around on foot or by metro. We make our excursion to Barlovento in a comfortable minibus.

Equipment

Headgear, sun and insect protection (for the Cacao plantation) are recommended. Depending on the time of year, rain protection may be necessary.