Caracas - Between history and modernity

Experience the fascinating capital of Venezuela, Caracas, on a two-day tour that combines historical treasures, modern architecture and natural beauty. This trip offers a perfect mix of culture, urbanity and nature - ideal for those who want to discover the diversity of this vibrant city and have little time to spare.

Day 1: Historic centre and urban flair

Start your discovery tour in the historic centre of Caracas. We recognize the main highlights related to Simón Bolívar's life, a "caraqueño" with universal transcendence. Feel the spirit of independence in the Panteón Nacional, the national hall of fame. Afterwards, explore the modern Chacao district on a relaxed city tour. Here you will experience the urban flair of the city with its architectural diversity - from colonial buildings to contemporary modernism. A ride on the metro, the city's lifeblood, will take you right into the heart of Caracas' vibrant hustle and bustle. The day ends in a typical bar, where you can enjoy the evening with local specialities and a refreshing drink.

Day 2: Modern Caracas and the green Ávila mountain

On the second day, you will discover modern Caracas and its architectural highlights. Afterwards, head up to Ávila Mountain, the city's local mountain, which towers over Caracas like a green jewel. Enjoy a hike through the lush vegetation and breathe in the fresh mountain air. A special highlight is a visit to the Humboldt Hotel, an architectural masterpiece from the 1950s that is now a symbol of modernity in Venezuela. From here you have a breathtaking view of the city and, with a bit of luck, the Caribbean.

Discover the cultural diversity of Caracas

Physical requirements

No special physical requirements.

Accommodation facilities

Accommodation is not included in the tour price. We are happy to help you arrange and book accommodation in Caracas.

Food and drink

We get a first insight into the culinary diversity of the country.

Note: Please inform us of any allergies or intolerances in good time before the start of your holiday.

Transport

Within Caracas, we move around on foot or by metro. We will take the modern cable car up the Ávila mountain (subject to change).

Equipment

We recommend light hiking clothing and comfortable shoes for the excursion to the Ávila mountain. Headgear and sun protection are recommended. Depending on the time of year, rain protection may be necessary.
